REFERENCE

FIIT Consulting is a team of talented software engineers who have gained experience in large corporate implementations. We are currently creating one of the largest independent knowledge centers for Aptitude. Thanks to a carefully selected international network of specialized IT partners in the field of finance, we ensure the highest standards in comprehensive program management for our clients.

Due to the area of operation, we were looking for an accounting office that would be able to approach the client's affairs in an individual way. Considering the number of ongoing projects, we must be sure that the person in charge of our accounting affairs will be able to accurately report related expenses related, because financial security is a key issue for us.

We value JWW for efficient and trouble-free contact, which greatly facilitates our communication. We discuss all matters on an ongoing basis, and statements and settlements are always prepared on time. We recommend JWW as a trustworthy accounting office!
