LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

Kellton is a global technology company headquartered in Hyderabad, India, specializing in digital transformation services, software engineering, and IT consulting. As part of its dynamic growth, the company has expanded its operations to regional offices not only in Europe but also across Asia. Kellton focuses on developing web, cloud, and mobile applications, and supports organizations in driving and sustaining digital innovation. Its clients include global corporations, smaller enterprises, and major NGOs such as UNICEF, the World Food Programme (WFP), and the European Commission.

Thanks to regular contact with the accounting department and the consistent preparation of financial analyses in English, the company can quickly and efficiently assess its financial standing—an essential capability given the need for reporting to other branches. The support we receive, rooted in deep expertise and experience, saves us valuable time in managing our responsibilities. With JWW as our reliable foundation, we are free to focus on what we do best—confident that Kellton’s financial matters are in the hands of professionals.

JWW Accounting Office has been our trusted business partner since 2013. The commitment and dedication of the entire team supporting us at every stage of our operations have enabled us to strengthen our position as a market leader.
